About Roxbury Community College

Years of dreaming and planning came to life in 1973, when Roxbury Community College opened its doors in the Grove Hall area of Roxbury. Despite less than perfect surroundings- its location was a former car dealership- Roxbury Community College's dedicated faculty, staff and administration served the educational needs of four hundred students. The College's mission, as it is now, was to provide higher education to those Boston residents who found most other avenues to higher education closed.

In 1975, growth was impetus for a move to 424 Dudley Street, a former nursing home. This move permitted the expansion and strengthening of academic programs and students services. The College continued to grow, which precipitated another move in 1982 to the former site of Boston State College on Huntington Avenue. As the college continued to shift its service base to meet an expanding enrollment, the goal to establish a permanent home for Roxbury Community College in the heart of the communities it serves, remained strong.

With much anticipation, Roxbury Community College built its new home at the cornerstone of the Southwest Corridor in the Spring of 1988. This fifteen acre campus includes a state-of-the-art Media Arts Building, Academic Building, Administration Building, Student Center and the Reggie Lewis Track and Athletic Center.

A global village, Roxbury Community College's multicultural and ethnically diverse student population has set it apart from other community colleges in the Commonwealth. Although most of our students are from Boston and surrounding communities, many come from all corners of the world including: North America, Central America, South America, Africa, Asia, the Middle East and Europe.

With renewed commitment, Roxbury Community College continues its legacy of providing educational opportunities for all who enter its doors.
